

SCHEDULE OF EVENTS

January 29

- Corps Academics Awards
- Women's basketball vs. Missouri

January 30

- MSC Wiley - "Healthcare: An Ailing System?"
- Men's basketball game vs. Texas

February 1

- MSC Hospitality Dodgeball Tournament
- MSC OPAS: A Ride with Bob (Feb. 1-2)
- Corps Junior Cadet Accessions Program (Feb. 1-2)
- The Vagina Monologues (Feb. 1 and 2)

February 2

- Men's basketball vs. Oklahoma
- Women's tennis vs. Houston

February 3

- Men's tennis vs. Washington

February 4

- Buck Weirus Spirit Award applications due

February 5

- Silver Taps (if needed)

February 6

- MEDALS staff applications available

February 7

- Century Scholars Meeting

February 9

- Women's basketball vs. Texas

February 10

- Curbside Recycling Drive

StuAct News

January 28, 2008 - February 10, 2008

The "Ultimate" Student Organization

The Risk Management & Organizational Development Services team is proud to announce our new and improved "Ultimate" workshop series! These voluntary workshops provide further information about specific topics for student organizations looking to further their group's development. This semester, we are offering seminars on four topics:

Student Organization Travel

Feb. 8th, 2:00pm-3:00pm
Mar. 26th, 10:00am-11:00am

Motivation

Feb. 22nd, 1:00pm-2:00pm
Apr. 1st, 3:00pm-4:00pm

Communication & Conflict Resolution

Feb. 18th, 3:00pm-4:00pm
Apr. 2nd, 10:00am-11:00am

Fundraising

Feb. 13th, 10:00am-11:00am
Mar. 31st, 11:00am-12:00pm

Register to attend an "Ultimate" workshop on StuAct Online today! For more information, contact our team at risk@stuact.tamu.edu or (979) 458-4371.

Margaret Rudder Community Service Award Applications due Friday, March 7

The Margaret Rudder Community Service Award seeks to recognize and award those who significantly impact their community and, as a result, are themselves impacted by that contribution.

Applications and Nominations will be available online February 1, 2008 and will be due on March 7, 2008. See <http://studentactivities.tamu.edu/lead-andserve/programs> for more information!

StuAct Online!

Have you signed on to StuAct Online yet? Browse the new website and create your personalized profile with Student Activities!

StuAct Online is the new online resource center for the Department of Student Activities at Texas A&M University. It combines the various functions and services of the Department into a single system that can be used by all students, faculty and staff of the University. The recognition process, access to SOFC resources, registration for events and seminars, and much more are all streamlined in our exciting new system!

Log in with your Net ID today, at <http://studentactivities.tamu.edu/online/>.

The Seven Habits of Highly Effective People®

Learn how to balance all aspects of college life, set habits that lead to success, focus on things within your control, set goals and prioritize your activities, develop relationships with faculty and advisors, and commit to self-improvement and renewal! Registration is now open for this free workshop on <http://studentactivities.tamu.edu/online>.

Sign up for one of the following options*:

February 1 and 2
(all students)

February 22 and 23
(graduate students only)

April 4 and 5
(all students)

March 19 - April 30
(weekly sessions every Wednesday, open to all students)

*Please note: attendance on all days of the workshop is required.

Questions? Call (979) 862-2514
or email sedwards@stuact.tamu.edu.